

Workforce Trade Instructors Needed, Spring 2021

Lincoln Land Community College is looking for qualified part-time instructors to teach for our Workforce Trade programs at our main campus in Springfield and at our Taylorville campus for Spring 2021. Employment is contingent upon successful completion of a criminal background check and drug-screen. For full position requirements, further information on all adjunct opportunities and to apply online, please visit our website at <https://llcc.peopleadmin.com>.

Automotive Technology – Instructors needed in Springfield for both day and evening classes. Applicants must possess an associate degree in Automotive Technology, bachelor's degree is preferred. Must have at least three years of auto industry experience and prefer either an Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) certification or completed automotive manufacturer training.

Construction Occupations – Instructors are needed in Taylorville for a Tuesday and Thursday afternoon Finish Carpentry class. Applicants must have 2,000 hours of employment in the field &/or completion of an apprenticeship trades program in the areas of construction, carpentry, masonry, surveying/building layout, plumbing, wiring, or blueprint reading is preferred

Electrical Maintenance – Instructors needed in Springfield for evening classes. Applicants must have 2,000 hours of employment in electrical maintenance &/or completion of an apprenticeship program (Journeyman Electrician). Classes this spring include Principles of Electricity and Circuits, Principles of Transformers and AC Circuits, and Motors and Generators.

Welding – Instructors are needed in Springfield and Taylorville for both day and evening classes. Applicants must have 2,000 hours of employment in welding &/or completion of an apprenticeship program (Journeyman), &/or CWI/CWE certification.

Workforce Trade Instructors Needed, Spring 2021

Love working in your trade? Interested in training the next generation? Teaching can be a great opportunity to use your expertise and knowledge to give back to the industry that provided you with a rewarding career. Lincoln Land Community College is looking for experienced professionals to teach Automotive Technology, Construction Occupations (Carpentry), Electrical Maintenance, and Welding at our Springfield and Taylorville locations beginning Spring 2021 for both day and evening classes. Employment is contingent upon successful completion of a criminal background check and drug-screen. For full position requirements, further information on all adjunct opportunities and to apply online, please visit our website at <https://llcc.peopleadmin.com>.